

space to talk

The programme is part financed by the European Union's European Regional Development Fund, through the EU Programme for Peace and Reconciliation (PEACE III), managed by the Special European Programmes Body

SAVE THE DATE...

The PEACE III Southern Partnership is hosting an innovative conference entitled "Space to Talk" on Thursday 12 May, starting at 4pm in the Seagoe Hotel, Portadown.

The event will look at dialogue as a mechanism for peace building and will feature case studies and a local study visit looking at mediums where dialogue has been successfully incorporated using innovative methods.

The event will feature a key note presentation from Kai Brand-Jacobsen Director, PATRIR (Peace Action, Training and Research Institute of Romania) who will look at the concept of "Space to Talk" and the importance of using dialogue in peace building and conflict resolution.

To register your interest or for more details, please email julie@event-ful.co.uk

Further details will be issued in the near future.